

2017 White Label Rosé

The Alkoomi vineyards and winery are located in the Frankland River district of Western Australia's Great Southern wine region. The name is taken from local aboriginal dialect and means 'a place we chose' and the logo represents the unique and distinctively Australian Grass tree, Xanthorrhoea preissii. The first plantings were in 1971 and the region's long, cool ripening conditions are perfect for growing fruit of intense varietal character.

Winemaking

2017 was made from estate grown Petit Verdot harvested in the early morning hours of early May. The fruit was destemmed and crushed into the press and immediately drained to tank in order to attain the desired colour and flavour profile. After cold settling and fermentation, the wine was left on yeast lees for 4 weeks before bottling.

Vintage

A classic cool climate growing season with ample rainfall and cold temperatures was followed by a dry and sunny autumn. The result being a slow even ripening with tremendous flavour development at low sugar levels.

Colour

Brilliant pale salmon pink.

Nose

Wild strawberry with violet floral notes and hints of fresh herbs.

Palate

Pristine flavours of cranberries and a creamy, textural mid palate leads to a refreshing and bright acid profile.
