

2016 White Label Rosé

The Alkoomi vineyards and winery are located in the Frankland River district of Western Australia's Great Southern wine region. The name is taken from local aboriginal dialect and means 'a place we chose' and the logo represents the unique and distinctively Australian Grass tree, Xanthorrhoea preissii. The first plantings were in 1971 and the region's long, cool ripening conditions are perfect for growing fruit of intense varietal character.

Winemaking

2016 was made from estate grown Petit Verdot harvested in the early morning hours of late March. The fruit was destemmed and crushed into the press and immediately drained to tank in order to attain the desired colour and flavour profile. After cold settling and fermentation, the wine was left on yeast lees for 2 months before bottling.

Vintage

A dry Winter and fleeting Spring was followed by a warm growing season with welcome rainfall in December and January leading to full, healthy canopies enabling excellent yields and great flavour development.

Colour

Pale salmon pink.

Nose

Wild strawberry and dried herbs with floral notes.

Palate

Vibrant flavours of ripe strawberries and a creamy, textural mid palate leads to a refreshing and bright acid profile.

Cellaring

Ready to enjoy now.

Alcohol 13.0%
