BACKGROUND

First planted by founder, Nick Holmes, over 30 years ago, Shottesbrooke is proudly an estate grown and managed boutique winery.

In the year 1337, one of the great knights of England, Sir William de Trussell, commissioned the construction of the Shottesbrooke church. Famous for his indulgent lifestyle, he sought to appease his critics with this generous contribution to the parish. Centuries later, from 1905 to 1926, Nick's grandfather was vicar of this very church. As a toast to this rich heritage, it is this beautiful building from which our winery takes its name.

Vineyards & Winemaking

'Blanc de Blanc' is a French term meaning "whitest of whites" and is commonly used to describe a sparkling wine made from 100% Chardonnay grapes, rather than the more traditional Chardonnay and Pinot blends.

Sourced from a selection of premium vineyards in the Adelaide Hills, this wine is restrained and elegant whilst young, yet becomes wonderfully developed and mouthfilling with age.

Reviews, Awards & Accolades

"Sweet Pez like aromatics, white peach and a tart zesty citrus palate. Has a bit of salty cracker, a fairly fine bubbles, and a decent finish. A refreshing aperitif style. Not bad at all." "Very good value." - 90 points, Gary Walsh, The Wine Front

"Elegant Hills chardonnay fruit is the key to this quite surprising sparkler - the winery is based in McLaren Vale and sources crunchier, cooler grapes for such styles, hence the apple blossom and cut chunks with a squeeze of lemon juice and a dollop of cream. The bubbles are fine and the joy plentiful in this release. So what's not to love." - Tony Love, The Advertiser
